

FLIPLY.MARKET PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated: Apr 15, 2026

1. Introduction

This Privacy Policy (“Policy”) describes how Fliply Technologies Ltd, a company incorporated under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (“Fliply Technologies Ltd,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), collects, uses, stores, shares, and protects your personal information when you access or use our website at <https://fliply.market> (the “Site”), our mobile applications, browser extensions, and all related services and features (collectively, the “Services”).

We are committed to protecting your privacy and handling your personal information transparently. Please read this Policy carefully. By accessing or using the Services, you consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your information as described in this Policy. If you do not agree with this Policy, please do not use the Services.

This Policy should be read together with our Terms of Service, available at <https://fliply.market/terms>, which govern your use of the Services.

If you have any questions regarding this Policy or our data practices, please contact our designated privacy contact at info@fliply.market.

2. Information We Collect

2.1 Information You Provide

We may collect the following information that you voluntarily provide to us:

- Email Address. When you create an account, you authenticate via email through our authentication provider, Privy. Your email address is collected for account verification and communication purposes.
- Wallet Address. Upon account creation, an embedded wallet is automatically created for you through Privy. Your public wallet address is associated with your account and is used to facilitate transactions on the Services.
- Communications. If you contact us for support, submit feedback, or otherwise communicate with us, we may collect the content of your communications, including your email address and any other information you choose to provide.
- Survey Responses. If you participate in surveys or promotional activities, we may collect the information you provide in connection with those activities.

2.2 Information Collected Automatically

When you access or use the Services, we automatically collect certain information, including:

- IP Address. Your Internet Protocol (IP) address is collected for security, fraud prevention, geo-restriction enforcement, and analytics purposes.

- Device Information. We collect information about the device you use to access the Services, including device type, operating system, browser type and version, screen resolution, language settings, and unique device identifiers.
- Usage Data. We collect information about how you interact with the Services, including pages viewed, features used, tournament participation, prediction activity, timestamps, and referring URLs.
- Transaction Data. We collect information about transactions you conduct through the Services, including tournament entries, predictions made, and wallet transaction history. Note that all blockchain transactions are publicly visible on the Solana blockchain.

2.3 Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies (collectively, “Cookies”) to collect and store information when you access the Services. Cookies are small data files placed on your device that help us improve the Services, analyze usage patterns, and deliver a better user experience. We use the following types of Cookies:

- Essential Cookies. Required for the basic functionality of the Services, such as maintaining your session and security settings. These cannot be disabled.
- Analytics Cookies. Used to understand how users interact with the Services. We use third-party analytics tools including Google Analytics and Mixpanel to collect and analyze usage data.
- Functional Cookies. Used to remember your preferences and settings to provide a more personalized experience.
- Advertising and Tracking Pixels. We may use tracking pixels and similar technologies from third-party advertising platforms (such as Meta Pixel, TikTok Pixel, and similar tools) to measure the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns, deliver relevant advertisements, and perform retargeting. These technologies may collect information about your device, browsing activity, and interactions with our Services and share such data with the respective advertising platforms.

Cookie Consent: When required by applicable law, we will obtain your consent before placing non-essential Cookies on your device through a cookie consent banner displayed upon your first visit to the Site. You may manage your Cookie preferences at any time through your browser settings or through our cookie consent tool (where available). However, disabling certain Cookies may affect the functionality of the Services. We do not respond to Do Not Track (“DNT”) signals.

2.4 Information from Third Parties

We may receive information about you from third-party services that you use in connection with the Services, including Privy (authentication and wallet provider) and blockchain networks (publicly available transaction data).

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect for the purposes set out below. Where required by applicable law, we have identified the legal basis for each processing activity:

| Purpose                                       | Data Types                                  | Legal Basis                                 | Retention Period                |
|-----------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Account creation & authentication             | Email, wallet address                       | Contractual necessity                       | Duration of account + 12 months |
| Providing Services (tournaments, predictions) | Email, wallet, transaction data, usage data | Contractual necessity                       | Duration of account + 12 months |
| Security & fraud prevention, geo-restriction  | IP address, device info, usage data         | Legitimate interest                         | 24 months                       |
| Analytics & improvement                       | Usage data, device info, cookies            | Legitimate interest / Consent               | 24 months                       |
| Communications & support                      | Email, communication content                | Contractual necessity / Legitimate interest | Duration of account + 12 months |
| Legal compliance (AML, tax, regulatory)       | All applicable data                         | Legal obligation                            | 5 years (or as required by law) |
| Advertising measurement & retargeting         | Device info, usage data, cookies, pixels    | Consent                                     | 24 months                       |

We may also use your information to:

- Communicate: Send you service-related notifications, respond to your inquiries, and provide customer support.
- Protect: Protect the rights, property, and safety of Fliply, our users, and the public.
- Comply: Comply with applicable laws, regulations, legal processes, or governmental requests, and to enforce our Terms of Service.

4. How We Share Your Information

We do not sell your personal information to third parties. We may share your information in the following circumstances:

- Service Providers. We share information with third-party service providers who perform services on our behalf, including Privy (authentication and wallet infrastructure), Google Analytics and Mixpanel (analytics), and hosting and cloud infrastructure providers. We have entered into appropriate data processing agreements with our service providers to ensure your data is processed in accordance with applicable data protection laws and only for the purposes of providing services to us.
- Advertising Partners. We may share certain information (such as device identifiers, usage data, and Cookie data) with third-party advertising platforms, including Meta (Facebook/Instagram) and TikTok, for the purposes of measuring advertising effectiveness, delivering relevant advertisements, and performing retargeting. You may opt out of personalized advertising through your device settings or by using the opt-out tools provided by the respective advertising platforms.
- Blockchain Networks. When you conduct transactions through the Services, certain information (including your public wallet address and transaction details) is recorded on the Solana blockchain and becomes publicly available. This is inherent to blockchain technology and cannot be reversed or deleted by Fliply.

- Legal Requirements. We may disclose your information if required by law, court order, subpoena, or other legal process, or if we believe disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the rights, property, or safety of Fliply, our users, or the public.
- Business Transfers. In connection with any merger, acquisition, reorganization, sale of assets, or bankruptcy, your information may be transferred to the acquiring entity or successor.
- With Your Consent. We may share your information with third parties when you have given us your explicit consent to do so.

5. Data Retention

We retain your personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected. The specific retention periods are as follows:

- Account Data (email, wallet address): Retained for the duration of your account plus 12 months after account deletion or termination.
- Transaction Data: Retained for 5 years after the transaction date for tax, compliance, and regulatory purposes.
- Analytics and Usage Data: Retained for 24 months from the date of collection.
- Communication Records: Retained for the duration of your account plus 12 months, or longer if required for ongoing disputes or legal matters.
- Legal and Compliance Data: Retained for such period as required by applicable law (typically 5-7 years).

Blockchain Data: Information recorded on the Solana blockchain (including public wallet addresses and transaction data) is permanently stored on the blockchain and cannot be deleted or modified by Fliply or any other party. This is an inherent characteristic of blockchain technology.

In some circumstances, we may anonymize your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such anonymized information without further notice to you.

6. Data Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use, alteration, or destruction. These measures include encryption, access controls, secure development practices, and regular security assessments.

However, no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and wallet access information, and you should notify us immediately at info@fliply.market if you suspect any unauthorized access to your account.

7. International Data Transfers

Your information may be transferred to, stored, and processed in countries other than the country in which you reside, including countries that may have different data protection laws than your jurisdiction. By using the Services, you consent to the transfer of your information to such countries.

We take reasonable steps to ensure that your information is treated securely and in accordance with this Policy, regardless of where it is processed. Where required by applicable law, we implement appropriate safeguards for cross-border data transfers, including standard contractual clauses or other legally recognized transfer mechanisms.

8. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on your jurisdiction and applicable law, you may have certain rights regarding your personal information, including:

- Right to Access. You have the right to request access to the personal information we hold about you and to receive a copy of such information.
- Right to Correction. You have the right to request correction of any inaccurate or incomplete personal information we hold about you.
- Right to Deletion. You have the right to request deletion of your personal information, subject to certain exceptions (such as legal retention requirements or blockchain-recorded data that cannot be deleted).
- Right to Object. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal information in certain circumstances, including processing for direct marketing purposes.
- Right to Restriction. You have the right to request restriction of processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Right to Data Portability. You have the right to receive your personal information in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and to transmit it to another controller.
- Right to Withdraw Consent. Where we rely on your consent to process your personal information, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before the withdrawal.
- Right to Opt Out. You have the right to opt out of the processing of your personal information for purposes of targeted advertising, and to opt out of the sale or sharing of your personal information, to the extent applicable under your jurisdiction's data protection laws.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at info@fliply.market. We may request verification of your identity before processing your request. We will respond to your request within thirty (30) days, or such shorter period as may be required by applicable law. If we require additional time, we will notify you of the extension and the reasons for the delay.

Important Note: Due to the nature of blockchain technology, certain data recorded on the Solana blockchain (including your public wallet address and transaction history) is permanently and immutably stored and cannot be deleted, modified, or restricted by Fliply. Your rights under this section do not extend to data that has been recorded on a public blockchain.

9. Children's Privacy

The Services are not intended for individuals under the age of 21. We employ age verification measures and do not knowingly allow individuals under 21 to create accounts or use the Services. We do not knowingly collect personal information from individuals under 21 years of age. If we become aware that we have inadvertently collected personal information from a person under 21, we will take steps to delete such information as soon as practicable. If you believe we have collected personal information from a person under 21, please contact us at info@fliply.market.

10. Third-Party Links and Services

The Services may contain links to third-party websites, applications, or services that are not owned or controlled by Fliply, including Polymarket, Privy, and various blockchain explorers. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of any third-party services before providing them with your personal information.

11. Third-Party Analytics and Advertising

We use third-party analytics services, including Google Analytics and Mixpanel, to help us understand how users interact with the Services. These services collect information about your use of the Services using Cookies and similar technologies. The information generated is used to compile reports and help us improve the Services. We have entered into data processing agreements with these providers to ensure compliance with applicable data protection laws.

For more information about Google Analytics and how to opt out, visit:

<https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>. For more information about Mixpanel's privacy practices, visit Mixpanel's privacy policy page.

We may also use third-party advertising and retargeting tools, including Meta Pixel and TikTok Pixel, to measure the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns and to deliver relevant advertisements on third-party platforms. These tools may collect information about your browsing activity across different websites. You can manage your advertising preferences through the settings of the respective platforms (e.g., Facebook Ad Preferences, TikTok Ad Settings) or through industry-standard opt-out mechanisms.

12. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time. When we do, we will revise the "Last Updated" date at the top of this Policy and post the updated Policy on the Site. We encourage you to review this Policy periodically. Your continued use of the Services after any modification to this Policy constitutes your acceptance of the modified Policy. If we make material changes to this Policy, we will notify you through the Services or by email at least fifteen (15) days before the changes take effect.

13. Governing Law

This Policy and any dispute arising out of or related to this Policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the British Virgin Islands, without regard to conflict of laws principles. The Services are made available from the British Virgin Islands and are not intended to subject Fliply Technologies Ltd to the laws or jurisdiction of any state, country, or territory other than the British Virgin Islands.
